The Design of Everyday things

By Don Norman

★★★★★

The ultimate guide to human-centered design. Even the smartest among us can feel lost as we fail to figure out which light switch or oven burner to turn on, or whether to push, pull, or slide a door. The fault, argues this ingenious -- even liberating...

The Psychology of Money

By Morgan Housel

★★★★★

Doing well with money isn't necessarily about what you know. It's about how you behave. And behavior is hard to teach, even to really smart people. Money--investing, personal finance, and business decisions--is typically taught as a math-based field...

Think Again

By Adam Grant

★★★★★

Think Again is a book about the benefit of doubt, and about how we can get better at embracing the unknown and the joy of being wrong. Evidence has shown that creative geniuses are not attached to one identity, but constantly willing to rethink....
